Geo. 1332 W 24-11-24

In continuation of this office letter No.R.C. 1038/H&B of 1924, dated 23rd October 1924, I have the honour to inform you that the District Superintendent of Police, Bellary, reports that there is no bungalow available for him if he is required to vacate the Deputy Inspector-General's late house which he is occupying. The rented house which the District Superintendent of Police formerly occupied has been taken up.

when vacate.

The Deputy Inspector-General's late house and office is not large enough for the whole District Police Office and the residence of the District Superintendent of Police. The whole of the bungalow proper should be allotted to the Superintendent of Police as residence. As the Government have ordered the whole building to be given to the Superintendent, Central Jail, as a residence, it is clearly not too large for a Superintendent's residence. There remains a large store room with an office room attached to the bungalow. This is at present occupied by the district police stores which were moved there in June from the rented Police-Office building on the ground that the accommodation provided for them there was leaky and in a dangerous condition.

This arrangement may continue until the rented office building is put into proper repair. After that there will be no use for the store room which could not be required by any tenant of the bungalow. The District Superintendent of Police should continue as at present to pay rent for the bungalow proper.

I wish to emphasize the fact that the Superintendent of Police reports that at present there is no other house available for him.

Office of the Inspector-General of Police,
Madras, 12th December 1924.

Dear Mr. Ramaswami Ayyar,

When you go to Bellary, Sayers, the District Superintendent of Police, will speak to you about our bungalow there, which he is occupying, having been taken from us by the Jail Department as a residence for the Superintendent of the Central Alipuram Jail. This was decided in G.O. No. Mis.1139-W dated 11th October 1924 of the Public Works Department, and in spite of ~~the~~ protest from our side this has been subsequently confirmed.

Sayers reports that at present there is no other bungalow available. The decision was arrived at at a time when Atkinson was apparently delaying to occupy the bungalow which eventually he did. The rented bungalow which he vacated was then taken up as an officers' mess.

Might I suggest to you that perhaps the file might be taken up to Bellary with you to enable you to refresh your memory on the exact points upon which the decision was made. The bungalow has been in our possession either as an office or as a residence for many years and it seems unfair that the Jail Department should dispossess us of it. I hope that you may see your way to get that decision reversed.

Yours sincerely,

Z. The I.G.s attention may be drawn to G.O. 1332, d. 24/11/24.

He may also be reminded that Govt never issued instructions to the D.S.P. to give up his bungalow in Bellary in the expectation that he would receive the D.I.Gs bungalow. He gave up the bungalow to be a mess for the Green Howards and as the Green Howards are leaving Bellary this week it will no doubt be possible to recover the bungalow now.

In the attached D.O. which the I.G. has written to C.S, he states that the bungalow is ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ to be used as a residence for the Supt of the Alipuram Jail and that the Supt will then be 1½ miles from the Jail. This was not what Col Cameron was saying. He wanted the bungalow for the Supt of the Bellary Jail and made a lot of the argument that the bungalow in question was next door to the Jail.

12.12.24

I took this file with me in consequence of the I.G.'s letter and I not only had a long talk with the D.S.P. on the subject matter dealt with in this file but also inspected his quarters ~~yesterday morning~~. It is obvious that the present difficulty has arisen by reason of Mr. Atkinsons dilatoriness. The house which Mr. Sayers is now occupying is near the jail as the crow flies but as there is only one entrance to the jail (and apparently there can be only one) and that is some distance away by road, the actual distance to be covered is not very short. In any case, there is not much difference in this respect between the house which the Superintendent of the Central Jail is occupying and the one occupied by the Superintendent of Police. Mr. Armitage has been confusing the -- Superintendent of the Alipuram Jail with the Super - te of the Central Jail. But the above remarks are intended to have reference to the Superintendent, Central Jail.

The house now occupied by Mr. Sayers is neither very large nor as commodious as it appears from the outside and the store room attached to the bungalow cannot, I think, be turned to any particular use. In any event, it is a very inconvenient house for a person who follows the Indian mode of life and I understand that Mr. Gurunathayya, the present -- Superintendent of the Jail, is not very anxious to change his present residence which is quite near the jail for the D.S.P.'s bungalow. Col. Cameron's argument is that the bungalow now occupied by the Superintendent, Central Jail, is unsuitable for an officer of the status of Superintendent of a Central Jail. The question is whether a bungalow should be transferred from one department to another on that ground. The bungalow would never have been given up by the Police Department but for a blunder on the part of Mr. Atkinson.

Incidentally I may add that the theory of the dilapidated condition of the District Police office does not seem to be very convincing. The matter has to be investigated more thoroughly [illegible] The fact seems to be, as is evident from Col. Cameron's letter of the 13th of February, that he is anxious to post a senior I.M.S. officer as the Superintendent of the Central Jail and was in his own language anxious to get the D.I.G.'s house for the Jail Department as "a golden opportunity has now arisen". The golden opportunity has benefitted the Jail Department at the expense of the Police Department.

I think it is necessary to reconsider our [illegible] in view to the practical difficulty of getting other accommodation for the D.S.P. In any case I do not think that a case has been made out for handing over the building belonging to the Police Department merely because Mr. Atkinson, whose eccentricities are well-known, allowed that to be done.

I have failed to make out from the file when the DSP is supposed to live - is his a bungalow available for him if he does not own his DTC house?

It is known that the D.S.P. gave up his bungalow on the 1st June 24. This was a privately rented bungalow. Mr Duff said that he did it because he was told to live in the D.I.Gs bungalow but an accidental question in the Leg. Council showed that it was because he had gone off to live at Horsleykonda for the hot weather. There is apparently no official D.S.Ps bungalow at Bellary. The D S.Ps bungalow was taken over by the Green Howards as a mess. I understand that they have now left Bellary and a detachment of the 2/3rd Madras Regt is there.

Ref: M2's note on the previous page.

No orders are now in force to the effect that residential buildings which fall vacant should be disposed of by P.W.D adviced by a local committee consisting of the collector & the Ex: Engr. But the procedure generally followed, when an official residence fall permanently vacant on account of the abolition of the post to which it is attached is for the E.E or the S.E to consult the local authorities of the several Deptts of Govt and to submit his proposals for the utilisation of the building. The P.W.D will then, in consultation with the several Deptts of the Secrett circular, issue orders in regard to the ~~disposition~~ assignment of the building.

In this particular case, however, the E.E or the S.E came to know that the Dy Supdt Govt's post at Bellary would be abolished and consequently his official residence would fall permanently vacant, the D.G. of Prisons had got scent of it and applied for the assignment of the residence to the Supdt of the jail. But the Police Dept wanted to retain it for Dy. Supdt. of Police. Thus there were only two applicants for the building Viz, the jail & the Police Deptts.

Thereupon

Thereupon under the orders of M_2 com

Thereupon the Collector the E.E. were asked pp 9-10 of 90.

and Judicial (Police) agreed to it. orders were thereupon issued to P.W.D accordingly in G.O. No. 1139 W & B 11.10.24.

Now the Judicial (Police) dept (that is, C_2) wishes to have the building given to the D.S.P and the Law (jail)

2. It is mentioned in this connection that there is a proposal to issue an order similar to that at A
